This document is to make the community aware of the actions perpetrated by MrDrNose/EternityDev, along with his toxic and incompetent moderators and friends. This document will showcase the horrible things MrDrNose and his mods have allowed or directly made happen, such as incredibly malicious bullying, scamming, favoritism, backstabbing, and allowing minors to be exposed to NSFW.

Note: We don't hate MrDrNose. But he chose to be an asshole and not fix any of his flaws or mistakes.This document's whole purpose was to make him get his shit together, if he would even want to listen. DO NOT bully or harass anyone about it and don't make spam accounts just to spam this document because that just makes unnecessary problems for both Eterntiydev and my group. Also we're adding new information almost everyday. If you have any questions, criticism or more screenshots for the document; you can contact me on discord, my username: the_real_professor1

In case you don't know who MrDrNose is, he is the creator of Voices of The Void and less notably, Advanced Education with Viktor Strobovski. Both games have had their time in the internet spotlight but the increased attention Voices of The Void has gotten demands a warning for new fans of MrDrNose who don't know about what he has done. Because of MrDrNose's newfound popularity, it has made his discord server "Eternitydev Games" to be boosted and it would reach over thousands of members.

I will call Advanced education "AEwVS" and Voices of The Void "VoTV"
MrDrNose is known as Shameless Ariral or Cursed Ariral on discord but on this document we will refer to him as MrDrNose, or just Nose

TW: Slandering, Harassment and bullying, Abuse of Power, pedophilic content. And defending pedophiles even with evidences being shown

1. MrDrNose allows his sexual fetishes to bleed unnecessarily into his games and community without properly limiting minors from being exposed to it.

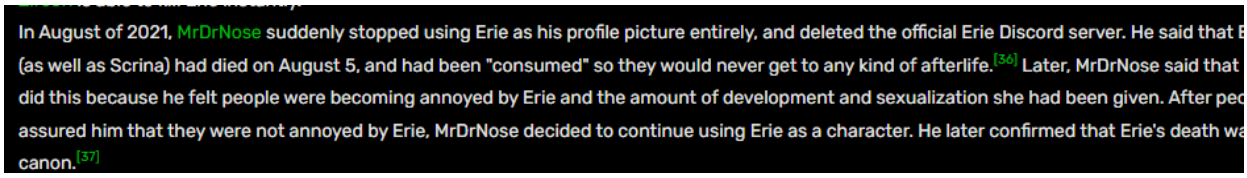
MrDrNose's myriad of sexual fetishes unnecessarily bleed into his games with fandoms full of minors. MrDrNose has an obsession with porn to the point where he will go back and "age up" previously underage characters in his old games, which we will get to later. As well did he inject sexualization and fetishization into them, just so that porn can be "ethically" made of them

Erie
Arirai

But first we need to explain more about Erie first. Erie is a “polymorph” that lives inside a robot suit. She was originally a human who lost her DNA and is now this thing. Erie was first introduced in AEwVS, and she was one of the many staff members stuck in the “infinite school dimension”. Now, about Erie as a character is that she is pretty much a fetish self insert made by MrDrNose. Now it's not a problem when she only makes one appearance. Except MrDrNose inserts her into everything, including VoTV. Of course you could say she is an easter egg. Except that she has been referenced way too many times to be considered as an easter egg. Like there is a statue of her, a graffiti with her name on it, a plushie of her and an omega Kerfus skin of her. Now I guess it wouldn’t be problematic but instead being completely annoying. But the bigger problem is that Erie pretty much affects the lore. What do I mean by this? Well, here is an example. Laura is a physical phantom who is asexual, and that piece of lore was written in stone. But MrDrNose has gotten more into NSFW. The lore would get erasure to blatantly sexualization, and Lauria would suddenly become another sex partner for Erie. (Can’t find any proof that backs up the statement, only can find proof of this is MrDrNose himself role playing by himself in the server as both erie and Laura. It’s not solid evidences but its all we got)

Erie БОТ Сегодня, в 11:01
mmh! ERIE! You could choose the other hole at least but my ass!~
@Laura (@Dingus_ariral) - jump
Now sit with my magick log cock in your butt till the show ends~

MrDrNose seems to do this alot with his lore and characters. Making an asexual character turned into another sex partner for the sake of his own sexual interest is retconning his characters and lore just for blatant sexualizing without a care. Before all of this, there was a point where MrDrNose killed off Erie because he was actually concerned about people being annoyed by his obnoxious and obsessive nature of sexualizing her, and killed her off. But people assured him they weren't that annoyed to the point they wanted her gone, so Nose brought her back. But later on, MrDrNose became the sex obsessed deviant that he is today, and decided to sexualize every character, and again, "aging up" underage characters as low as 14-16 years of age so porn can be made of them.



In August of 2021, MrDrNose suddenly stopped using Erie as his profile picture entirely, and deleted the official Erie Discord server. He said that E (as well as Scrina) had died on August 5, and had been "consumed" so they would never get to any kind of afterlife.[36] Later, MrDrNose said that did this because he felt people were becoming annoyed by Erie and the amount of development and sexualization she had been given. After peo assured him that they were not annoyed by Erie, MrDrNose decided to continue using Erie as a character. He later confirmed that Erie's death wa canon.[37]

It is disappointing to see how Nose changed so much for the worse. He's not compassionate and caring for his lore or the fanbase that supported him. He is more focused on sexualizing his characters or species rather than to make good lore about them.

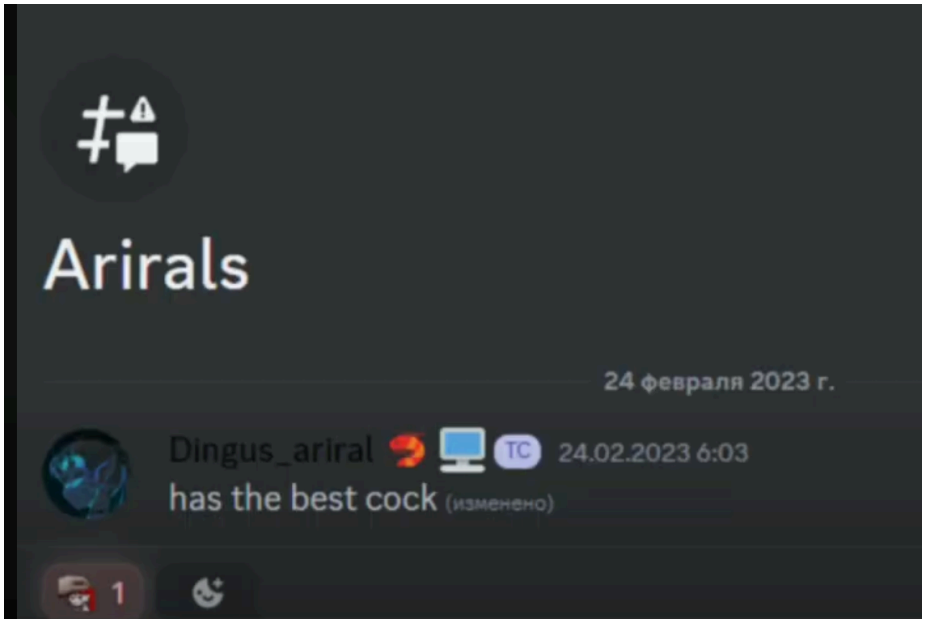
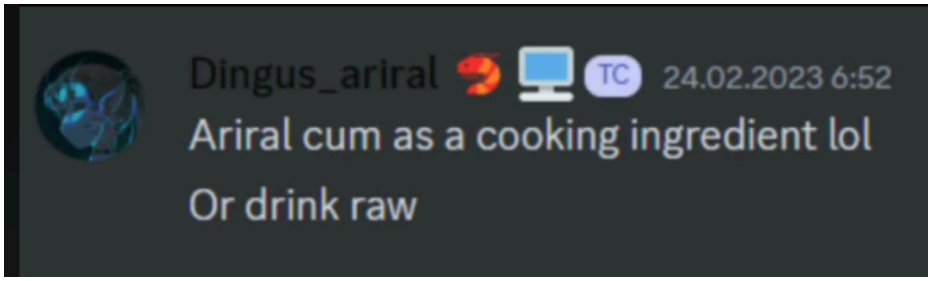
Lol





It’s bad for both a story writing perspective and a more public audience. If MrDrNose is even looking forward to moving VoTV to Steam of course, but I doubt that he has any interest in doing so. Anyway, it generally is very annoying about every character being consistently sexualized. Everything that Nose made has more info about the taste of their cock than actual backstory, it's just blatantly sexualizing everyone and everything without a care. Like the whole sex this, sex that thing is plain annoying. And I could count the number of times I see Nose saying sex randomly and or just sexualizing things in general. Now, about the minors that were aged up he can ethically make NSFW of them. (MrDrNose denies this but it still is uncertain if it is true or not) Those characters were Olivia and Angell, Olivia is 16 - 17 (I believe) and Angell was a 14 - 16, according to the screenshot here

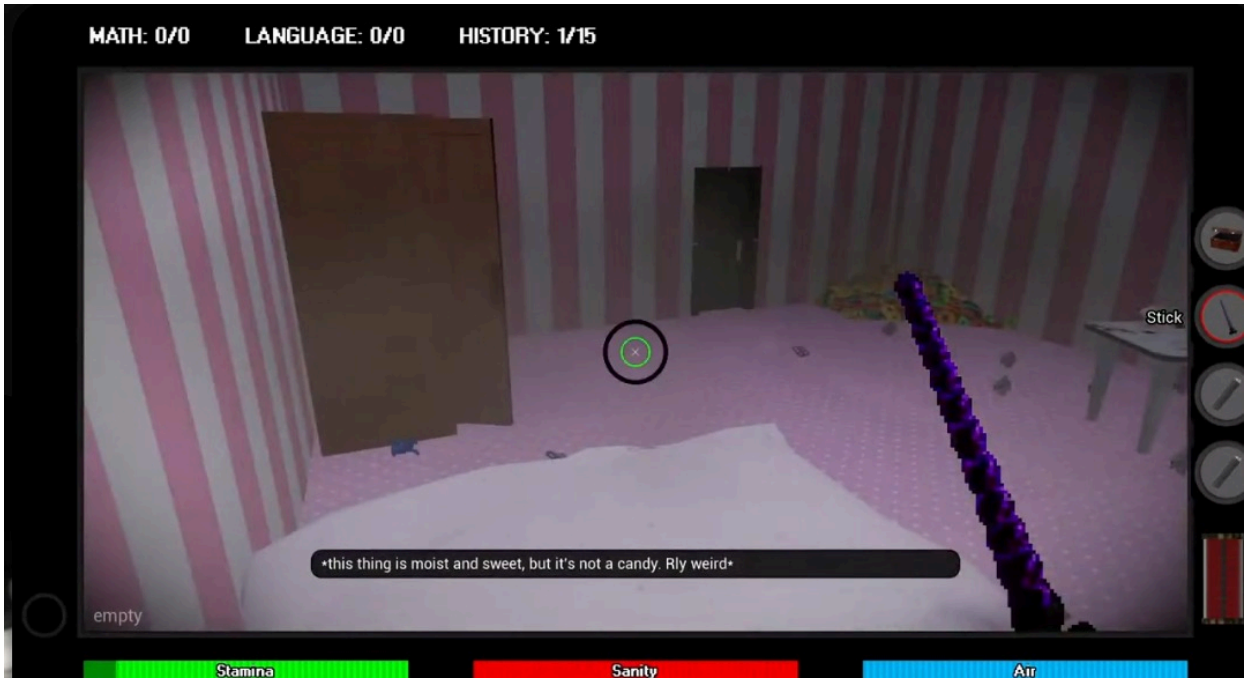
@Laura the Headteacher I think AEwVS is a middle school
Wooper Dogg (AEwVS Guider) Yesterday at 4:35 PM
Angell is 14-16 so it's a high school

These characters in the game are at a school and would make no sense as to why they would be there if they were 18, it ruins the lore and the reality of it. The only reason MrDrNose changed them was that they were adults so he could ethically make porn of them without getting in trouble.

Here is something I should mention that is this disgusting thing that happens in AEwVS



So what happened here is that Angell sucked on a dildo thinking it was candy. Which is beyond messed up. It is fucking creepy, having a minor suck on a dildo because she thought it was a candy is beyond gross and concerning. Even if she was an adult in the first place, the idea of angell having a childish mind is still fucked up and it crosses many lines. Although I do not consider MrDrNose a pedophile, but It is still not okay, and it cannot be excused. And Nose can't use the "it's just a joke" excuse because joke or not, it still crosses way too many lines. Although it's just his game and his lore. It's still bad for what he has been doing with the games when he makes crap like this. There is also the case that there are more sex lore than main lore. The lore and its characters were interesting but then got obnoxious because MrDrNose is too focused on sexualizing everything about his characters, which makes it pretty clear as daylight that he doesn't even care about his own lore anymore if the only thing he cares about is sexualizing everything first than actually building his characters such as Erie. MrDrNose says that Erie has a sister but never actually builds on it, instead he is distracted with sexualizing the character. If MrDrNose gets any criticism regarding the blatant sexualization being inserted in his horror game characters such as Arirals which are the most sexualized next to Erie. This is how he would respond

2. MrDrNose blatantly sexualized his characters in his server full of minors

MrDrNose has NSFW channels and adult only channels, but for some reason MrDrNose doesn't put in the effort to separate the NSFW stuff from the public channels, and instead just sexualizes his character in the general chat full of minors instead of the restricted adult only channels. Before Voices of The Void, the EternityDev Games discord server was strictly 16+ and anyone below this age would get banned. But ever since VoTV has reached its popularity, they would lower the age rating and allow minors below 16 to join. Even with a large amount of underage members in the server, MrDrNose thought it was a GREAT IDEA to go to general chat and say that one of his characters is a milf, and then later get mad when minors were talking about that same character being a milf. Even though it's his fault for even bringing it up in a public channel on a server full of minors. If you don't want kids talking about it then why bring it up in the first place in a channel where they can see it. Somehow he doesn't have the common sense to realize that before saying it.

This has happened in my first month of being on the server.

And then here is MrDrNose saying that Soltomia (who are robots) can masturbate.

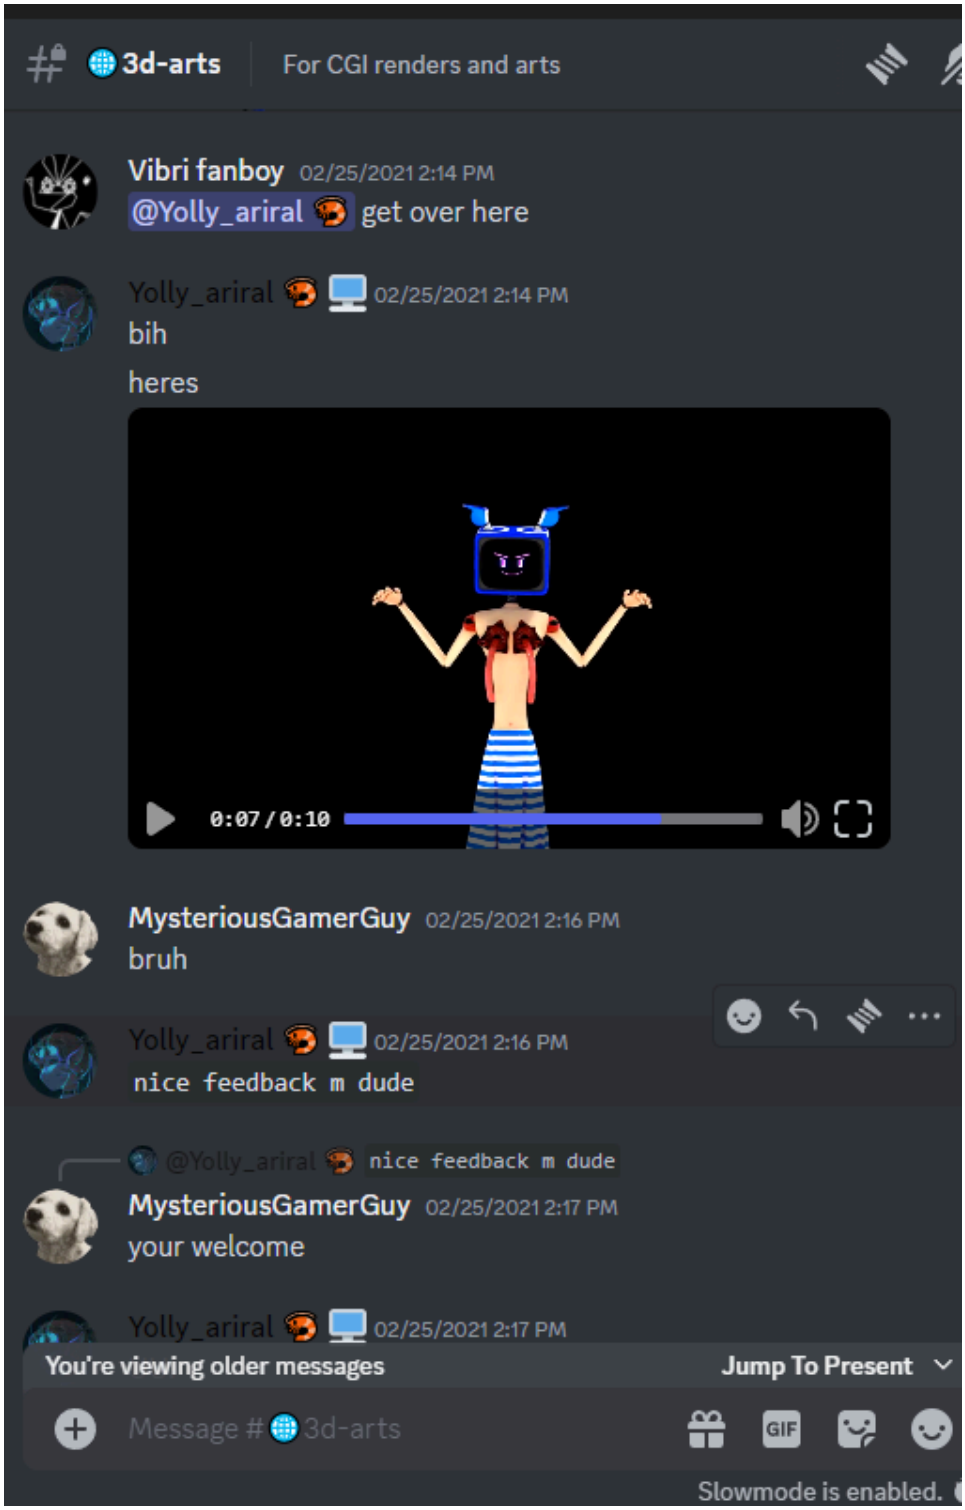
Slowmode is enabled.



There was originally a thread made by MrDrNose in the general chat where it gave the entire lore on the Arirals, the reason why it is relevant is because it contains a lot of NSFW information. Such NSFW information was about the size of Arirals dong and condom and the Feral Arirals and their s*x treehouse. And the thread was public and it had zero warning about NSFW. I called him out for it since the fact this thread exists in the public channel and had no warning about the content it had, it needed to be called out. MrDrNose's response to it was to delete it and claim it to be a "Joke". (The same thing he said when he was criticized for making a bad update for VoTV). I don't have actual proof of the thread existing before besides having screenshots from members mentioning the thread before it was deleted.

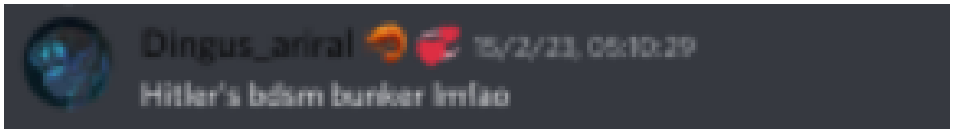
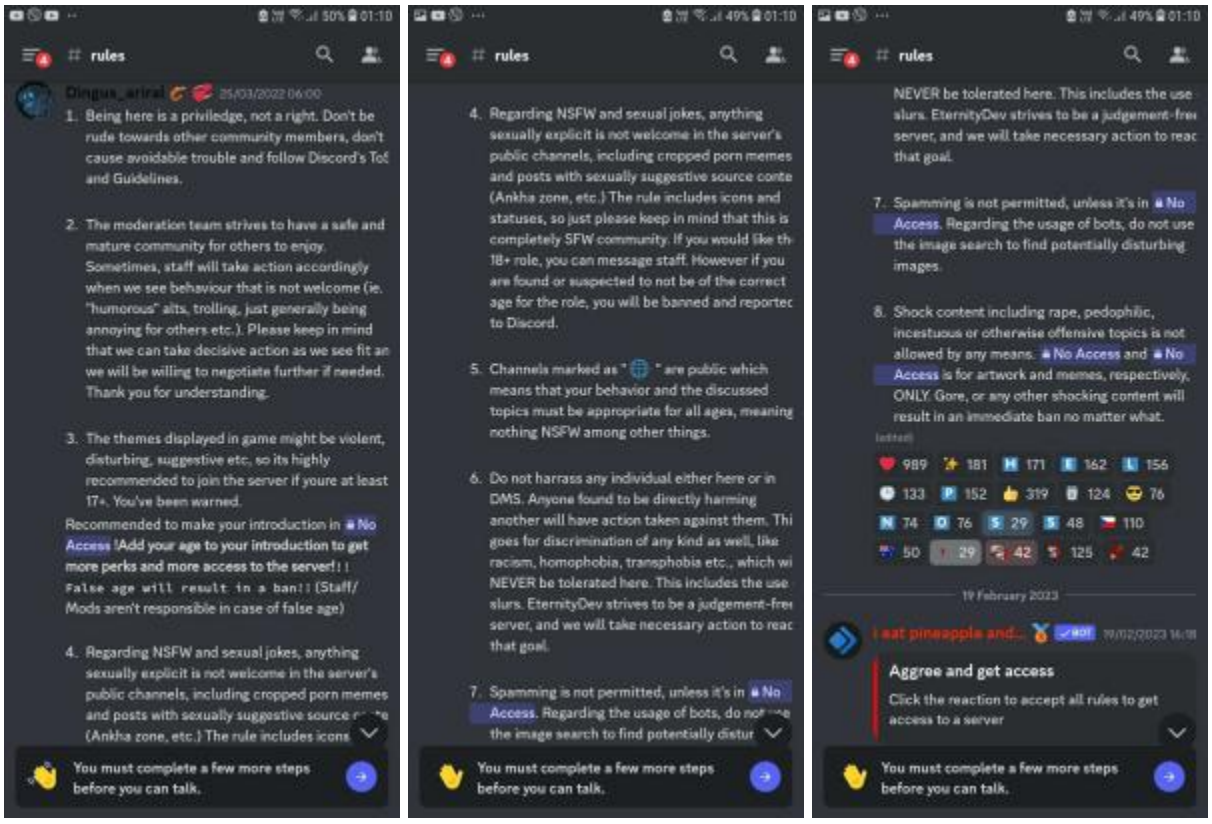
Off topic: What the hell is this



3. MrDrNose and his moderators are extremely toxic, and incompetent when it comes to enforcing their discord server rules. They have even break their own rules:

These are the rules



rules
1. Being here is a privilledge, not a right. Don't be rude towards other community members, don't cause avoidable trouble and follow Discord's ToS and Guidelines.
2. The moderation team strives to have a safe and mature community for others to enjoy. Sometimes, staff will take action accordingly when we see behaviour that is not welcome (ie. "humorous" alts, trolling, just generally being annoying for others etc.). Please keep in mind that we can take decisive action as we see fit an we will be willing to negotiate further if needed. Thank you for understanding.
3. The themes displayed in game might be violent, disturbing, suggestive etc, so its highly recommended to join the server if youre at least 17+. You've been warned.
Recommended to make your introduction in No Access !Add your age to your introduction to get more perks and more access to the server!!!

Moderators and the owner tasks are to enforce their rules. Unfortunately MrDrNose and his moderators fail to enforce it and even break it from time to time. They don't warn or ban people who break the rules (depending on which member they favor). They don't seem to even care

Two guys have posted this image in the meme channel. It wasn't cropped. You can just see tits out. Moderators did nothing about it, I had to call them out about it and tell them to delete it and post it where minors won't see it. This breaks Rule 4 of this server, and don't forget that MrDrNose sexualized his characters in the server outside of nsfw channels.

(The minor accessing NSFW channel easily is outdated but it's worth reading about it)

Speaking about the NSFW channel, apparently it is very easy for minors to get access into the NSFW channel, these mods even said it themselves about how they already banned a few who lied about their age to get access. One of my friends even told this to the moderators that any minor can just create an alt account just now, join the server and claim to be 20 and they wouldn't even know they have minors looking at the NSFW channel. And he proves his point by doing just that. Something I should tell you is that there are more NSFW channels than any regular channels. And this is a community game server, full of minors. And have issues with minors sneaking into the nsfw category.

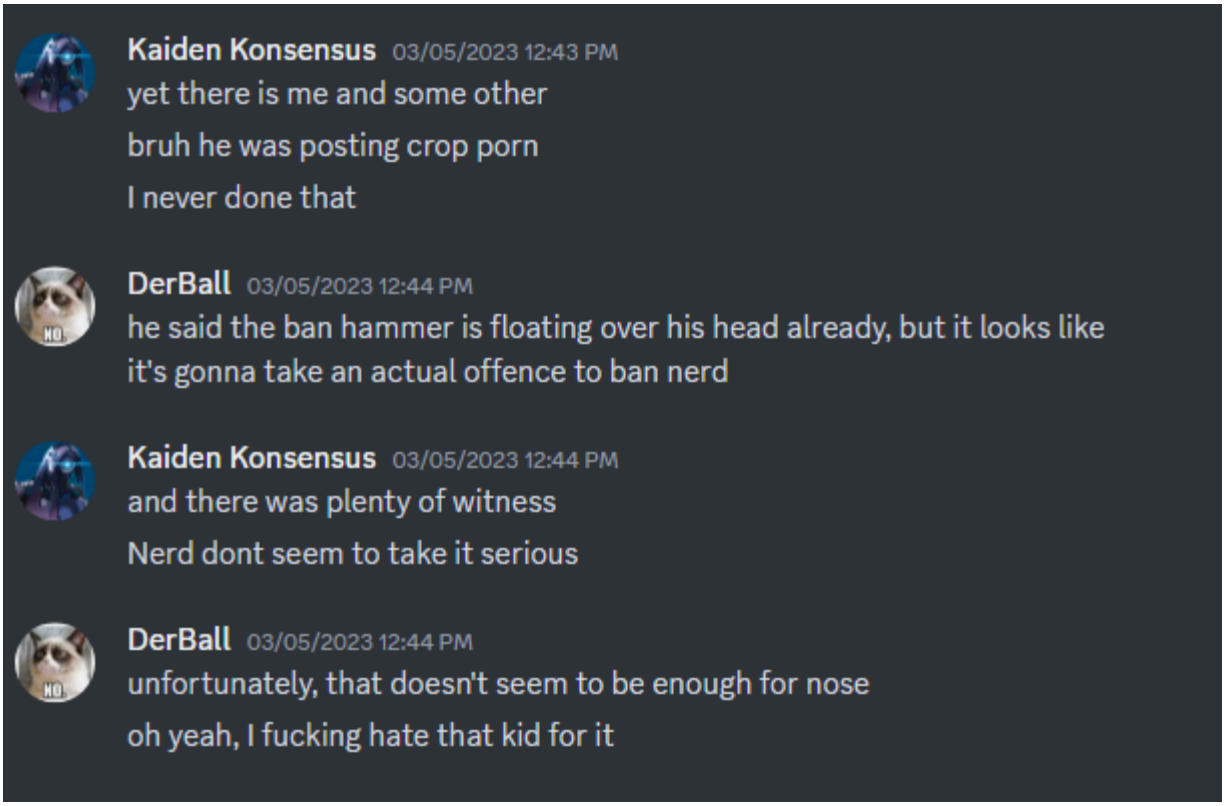
There is even a channel where you exchange nudes of yourself, and a nsfw vc channel that is named Olivia boobs. (Olivia who was a minor before nose change her age)

Now, here is another example of how poor moderation is beside kids sneaking into nsfw channels. There was a minor (username is "nerd") who was possibly younger than 13. As he had no maturity about anything and people believed he was 11 years old younger, and this kid was flashing the active channel thread with cropped Neco-Arc porn and even though multiple people, including a moderator "Derball" saw him do this. MrDrNose did nothing to punish him. Because there is no "evidence" about it. Here is a conversation I have with the moderator about the incident



Kaiden Konsensus 03/05/2023 12:43 PM
yet there is me and some other bruh he was posting crop porn
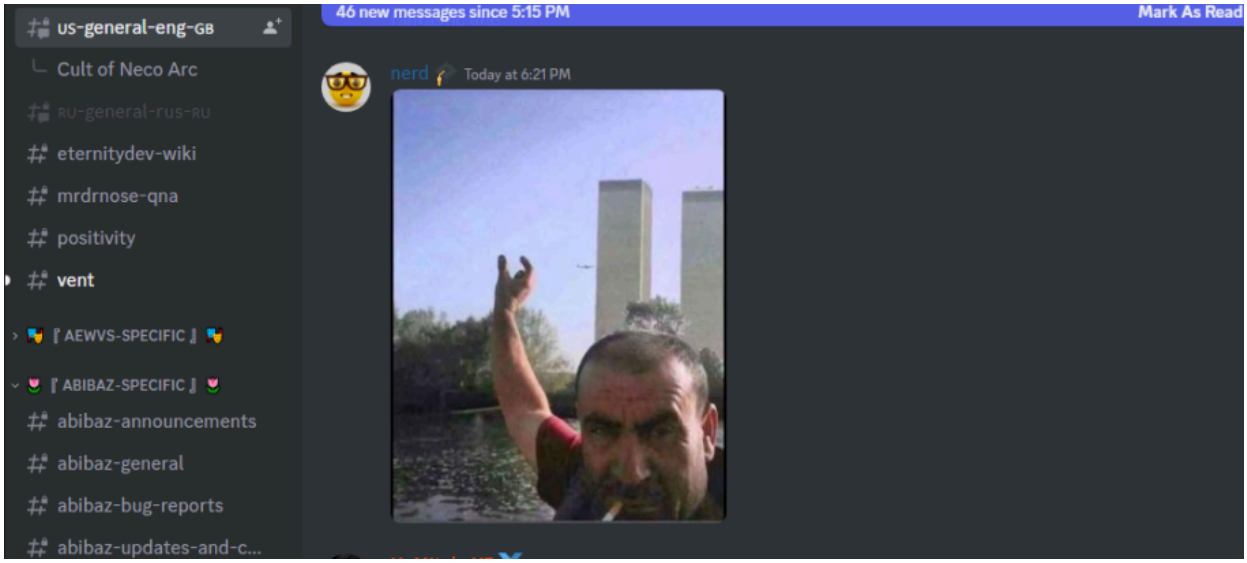
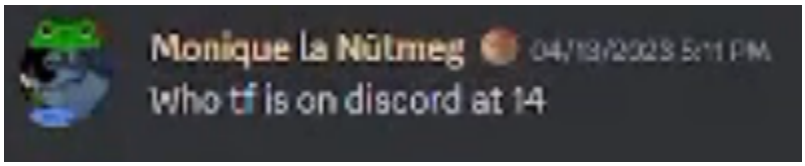
I never done that
DerBall 03/05/2023 12:44 PM
he said the ban hammer is floating over his head already, but it looks like it's gonna take an actual offence to ban nerd
Kaiden Konsensus 03/05/2023 12:44 PM
and there was plenty of witness
Nerd dont seem to take it serious
DerBall 03/05/2023 12:44 PM
unfortunately, that doesn't seem to be enough for nose
oh yeah, I fucking hate that kid for it

The fact that MrDrNose did nothing just shows how incompetent they are. Nerd claimed to be “15” and somehow Nose believed it, even though from multiple incidents where he broke the rules or showing that he isn’t mentally mature whatsoever. Whenever Nerd levels up and get pinged by Mee6, he would spam “kill yourself”, he does this everytime he leveled up. There was a time where Nerd has posted a 9/11 image which goes against the rules, and yet he still remain unpunished



People and especially the moderators such as Derball all agree that Nerd is underage and is definitely below 13. Nerd is just not mature and all he does is cause trouble and yet MrDrNose did nothing about it. He did so much that goes against the server rules and managed to get away without any real punishment until Nerd tried to impersonate MrDrNose and try to trick people that he's the real Developer.

MrDrNose finally banned him but only because he tried to impersonate him, not that he broke all the other rules such as Rule 4 & 8 or the fact he is clearly underage. MrDrNose for some reason hasn't banned or punished this kid even with all these rules being broken and the clear signs that Nerd is under the age of 13. Only when that Nerd tried to impersonate him which would it be a problem for Nose, personally. This owner of this so-called “safe and mature” community has failed basic protocols of moderating his own server; he or the mods don't even try to enforce the rules. It's like the rules are just there for looks and not actual rules. You only get in trouble because the mods don't like you, they don’t ban people most of the time, instead they maliciously attack them. They are extremely toxic, entitled and out of touch.



These people just despise minors, which I must remind you. That the Eternitydev Games discord server was strictly 16+ and above until VoTV was created and gotten popular. So, they did let anyone below 16 to join even tho they treat them like they are worse than the bubonic plague

The context here is they were mocking me being “majorly disabled”. They’re just saying very rude things about me on a private channel and one of my friends who had access to the channel showed me this. The moderators here are ableists. And they have shown that this server is not “safe and mature” like the rules claim when the mods are just being a bully to everybody under 18, and like to talk nasty things about them behind their backs. Some big thing to mention is that the role of “moderators" is more of a social status to tell everyone without the role that they are invalid, and it seems likely too, they get away with everything. And it seems pretty easy to become a mod/helper, all you need to do is be 18 or above, and be a patron supporter. As every patron member in the servers is given a helper, and later mod, this is obvious favoritism. Even a former tier 3 patreon seem to believe this the mods were saying stuff like "yeah, i don't know why there are so many people that are on this server, just kinda talking about their shit. seems like they have nothing better to do with their life" or something along these lines, portraying the patrons as the gods of the server

These people shouldn't be moderators at all. They just maliciously attacked and bullied me along with other peoples for minor reasons or no reason at all. Now I have done a few things that aren't good, but they aren't major enough to be a fucking target and a scapegoat. Hell, I'm just attacked either way for just making "too many questions" in MrDrNose Q&A. I usually ask MrDrNose 10 questions about the game and lore in his dm but since MrDrNose now allowed people at the age of 13+ or above into his server for his server, I would ask him in the QnA Channel but for some reason these self entitled people think they can speak and think for MrDrNose, they all got angry about me asking questions and would attack me about it, all because I "ask to many questions" One day I ask 4 questions. And all the moderators still got mad and started a whole drama about it. Now, enough about my experience, here is someone else's experience with the mods.

And decided to ban them from every public channel, general chat, vent (deleted), art (temporary) included. Sasik, and link came to the server only to find out that MrDrNose has age restricted all public channels. Including venting, and they complained about it to the moderators, the conversation was long. But here we have one guy, out of nowhere come to the conclusion that the reason why they're upset about the age restriction, is that they're pedophiles. Which isn't okay at all, and this behavior of just throwing pedo accusations goes unpunished.

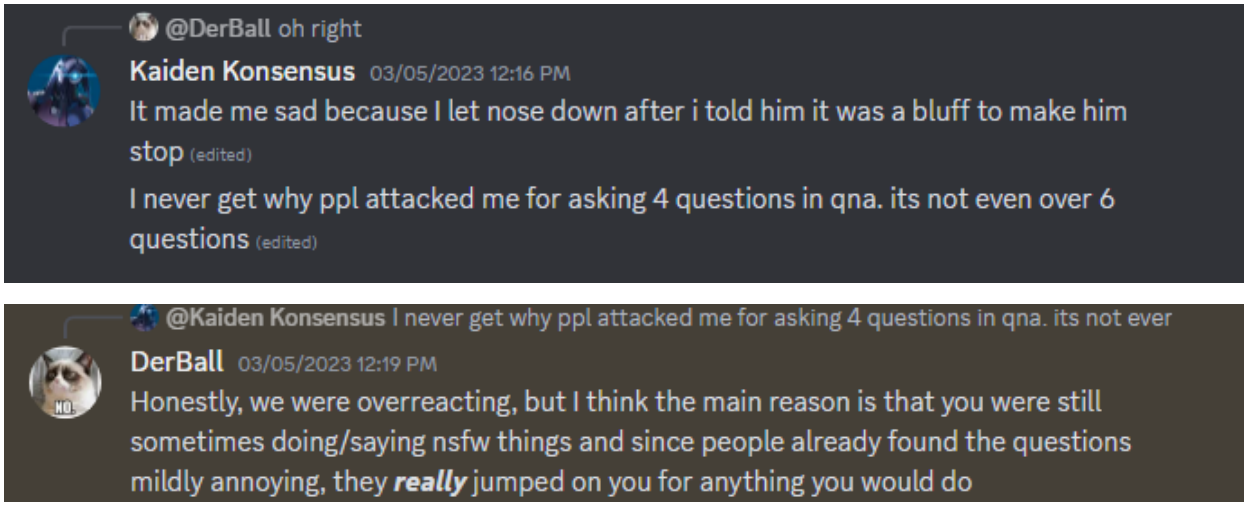
Not going "I'm killing myself cus you strangers in this Discord don't give me attention"

This to me just shows the moderators do not care about people, when they can let something like this happen, or start it themselves. This community is a toxic shithole that needs to be saved from themselves. But of course MrDrNose doesn't care about the server, he is more busy with making thousands of NSFW channels than moderating his server and supervising the mods.

There was another conversation I had with the same moderator Derball about the mistreatment thing back then.



@DerBall oh right

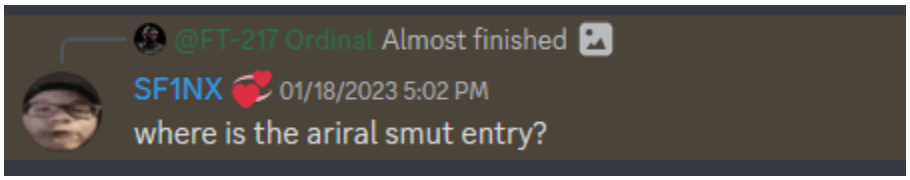
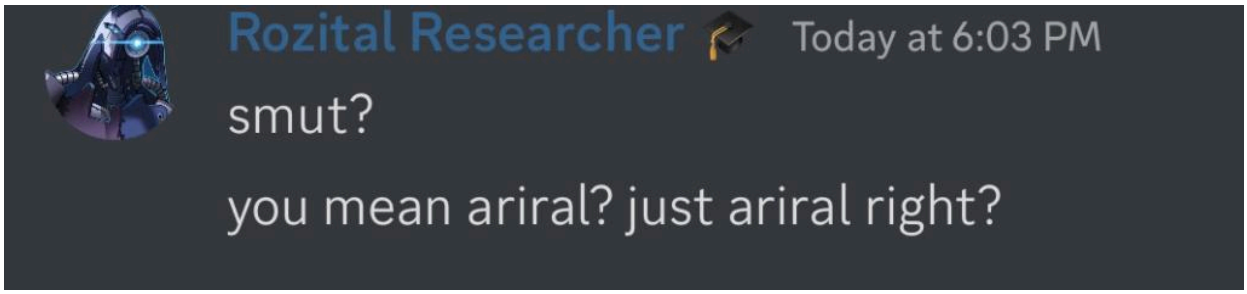
Honestly, we were overreacting, but I think the main reason is that you were still sometimes doing/saying nsfw things and since people already found the questions mildly annoying, they really jumped on you for anything you would do

As he said, they get annoyed about my questions that are toward MrDrNose, not questions toward them but MrDrNose. They get mad over anything and like he said, they really jump on anything I do. I'm not allowed to ask anything related to the lore or game anymore because of these people just bullying me. This confirms this when I made an iceberg chart about All of MrDrNose games and his fanbase, and it has the entire moderation team triggered and have them all dogpile me because my iceberg had "MrDrNose "sus" twitter account" mentioned. Which is funny because they didn't seem to care that Noli and FendCat made their iceberg with the same topic about the NSFW twitter account. So why did they make a ruckus over this nothing burger? It certainly ain't because I'm a minor since they were chill about Noli doing it when he was a minor himself.

This entire drama over an iceberg chart that I made was stupid. But after that, they got tired of it. So they left me alone until this guy ask me this



No clue what “ariral smut” is but I assume they mean “arirals” because I never heard of this thing.



But just responding to this guy just kicked the hornet’s nest and the moderators of this “Safe and mature” community came back to harass me one last time for the night

I had enough of the bullshit and it was so late at a school night for me at the time. So my last thing to do was make an entire message about the server in the vent channel, then I went to bed. In the morning I never bothered checking my discord and just went to school. When I came back from school I checked the discord to see all this bullshit

The admin of this server went out to slander me with so many horrible things like calling their friend a rapist. Again this server is called a “Safe and mature” yet the moderators are malicious and hostile to any one. I had to deal with these two lunatics that live in a whole other reality where logic doesn’t exist. I don’t know why Snails but she had a change of plans, and decided to “help me” after getting that I didn’t call their friend a rapist. She decided to try to act “nice” to me. She has said to me that she will “help me” and said she will “stand up” for me if I was ever falsely accused of something. Although she has claimed she will do these things to “help”. Except, no, she has never ever tried to help. She never really did anything to help. She never even tried to state to everyone that no, I didn’t call their friend a “rapist” She never even tried to clarify to everyone in the server about it. Since she never did that. One of my friends had to ask about it in the @meatballs about the kaiden stuff he was accused of calling a friend of snails (i think) a rapist, and he invited m snails Today at 3:53 PM

i still feel bad for bringing that situation back up out of the blue, basically it refers to when someone sent a meme in my server and kaiden attempted to make a joke to my friend that just sounded like he called him that name, and everyone became uncomfortable with him.
i've discussed this with kaiden in both this servers punishment room and in dms, and assured him that everything is fine now i hope he's doing ok, a lot has happened but i let him know i'm here to talk if he needs and i won't give up on helping

She never publicly admitted that it was false about what they said about me until someone had to bring this up to them on the server. I then asked Snails why she never admitted to the slander she made of me. Instead of answering me, she decided to victimize herself, trying to act like I'm yelling at her and that I'm hurting her feelings, and then she got MrDrNose and Eevee to come and shit on me. All I did was ask why she never announced that she slandered me with false accusations to make my reputation worse until someone brought it up. She accused me of horrible things and never even tried to fix it.

One time I told her about Laurie, Laurie who was a sociopath that throws tantrums and hates you for no reason. I told her about him trying to fight me all the time, and she did nothing to stop Laurie going unhinged tantrum at me for no reason. It was pretty clear that she isn't interested in actually helping, and she probably told me she would "help" me so I can shut up about the obvious flaw that Eternitydev has. And she knows the server is garbage hence why she left

That was my thoughts, but it confirmed my feelings about Snails after what I heard from her old friends, and they all told me what Snails truly is. She is a hypocritical two face manipulator. And they also talked about how she would say things behind their back which is what she did to me, that happened after I finally got banned from the Eternitydev server. Reason: I was having a conversation with eevee in the server about Snails feeling like leaving the server, he called bullshit and accused me of lying, so in my response to prove im not lying. I showed him the dm screenshot proving it, then hell broke loose and I got banned + blocked from Snails. After that, she was busy trying to make everyone hate me as much as possible with many baseless claims.

snails 03/12/2023 11:02 AM kaiden and nerd are tumors on ed server :p
kaiden really likes talking behind ppls back and using their words against him but idk, he searched his name constantly seeing what ppl said about him

Thankfully my friends brought this to my attention because there was no way I could defend myself since I wasn't on the server to even see what she was saying, but again, they were saying this in the patreon channel which is something I wouldn't even have access to begin with.. Anyway, this is my response. These are interesting, her claims is that I talk behinds back and use their words against him? (Who?), kinda ironic since she is talking behind my back, and making baseless claims about me, and I can't even defend myself because I'm banned from that server. I don't know about the "using other people's words against others" claim, but I wouldn't be surprised that I did talk behind somebody's back unintentionally since I don't realize the things I've been doing back before. But still, where did she even get this kind of information from? She doesn't even show any screenshots to back up any claims she made. And I'm straight up confused on the part where I "constantly searched up my name". These things just came out of her ass, and she doesn't even have screenshots to prove these things happened. And I sure as hell don't remember doing any of these. Of course, Snails doesn't really need to prove that I did these things to the moderators, because she knows the moderators wouldn't give a shit about it being true or not, since they hate my guts. Snails is a hypocrite as she is friends with very trashy people, some of them posted gore, racial slurs, they would even post PORN in random group chat, and many other things. She knows they do this shit because she is active in their server, which she cares more about than MrDrNose server which she decided to abandon. One thing I need to mention is that she even said that one of them sent her a guy shooting himself. These people are minors and one of them has posted a video of themselves masturbating into their server (The server snails was in)

Mr. Purple 07/14/2023 4:03 PM

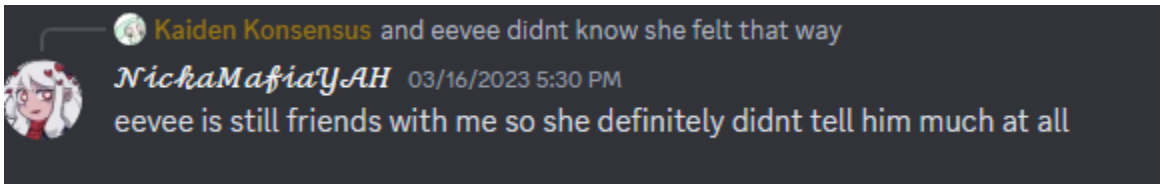
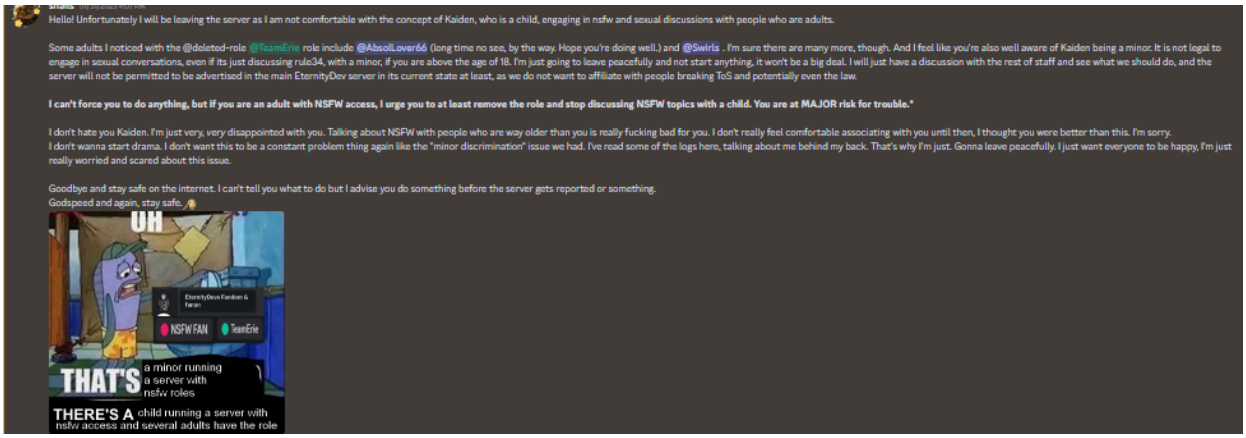
Everyone in this art is hated by the Eternitydev Fandom and I doubt MrDrNose (Snail's "best friend") and Emperor Eevee (snail's boyfriend) know about this, than again, Nicka herself said she probably never told him about the shit she does. But that's probably changed now than back in March.
(This is no longer the case, as Emperor Eevee has also left Eternitydev and went with Snails to join up with these minors who are not mentally well)



Kaiden Konsensus and eevee didnt know she felt that way
NickaMafiaYAH 03/16/2023 5:30 PM
eevee is still friends with me so she definitely didnt tell him much at all

Anyway, snails is a two face, simple as that, if you follow her on twitter, unfollow her and block her and find a better artist who probably isn't a shitty human being that does shit like this. One thing I need to mention is that when she started to claim that she's gonna help me. She asked to join my server. I invited her, and I regret it. For some reason she was under the misconception that the TeamErie Role is an nsfw role like in the original Eternitydev server, but that not true because my rules are pretty strict about NSFW



Hello! Unfortunately I will be leaving the server as I am not comfortable with the concept of Kaiden, who is a child, engaging in nsfw and sexual discussions with people who are adults.
Some adults I noticed with the @deleted-role @TeamErie role include @AbsolLover66 (long time no see, by the way. Hope you're doing well.) and @Swirls . I'm sure there are many more, though. And I feel like you're also well aware of Kaiden being a minor. It is not legal to engage in sexual conversations, even if its just discussing rule34, with a minor, if you are above the age of 18. I'm just going to leave peacefully and not start anything, it won't be a big deal. I will just have a discussion with the rest of staff and see what we should do, and the server will not be permitted to be advertised in the main EternityDev server in its current state at least, as we do not want to affiliate with people breaking ToS and potentially even the law.
I can't force you to do anything, but if you are an adult with NSFW access, I urge you to at least remove the role and stop discussing NSFW topics with a child. You are at MAJOR risk for trouble.*
I don't hate you Kaiden. I'm just very, very disappointed with you. Talking about NSFW with people who are way older than you is really fucking bad for you. I don't really feel comfortable associating with you until then, I thought you were better than this. I'm sorry.
I don't wanna start drama. I don't want this to be a constant problem thing again like the "minor discrimination" issue we had. I've read some of the logs here, talking about me behind my back. That's why I'm just. Gonna leave peacefully. I just want everyone to be happy, I'm just really worried and scared about this issue.
Goodbye and stay safe on the internet. I can't tell you what to do but I advise you do something before the server gets reported or something.
Godspeed and again, stay safe.

April 13, 2023

Snails thinks that people are discussing sexual things with minors on this server. OBVIOUSLY NOT. She even went after Absol, which is probably the whole reason why she started this whole “pedo server” accusation on my server. So she could personally attack her regarding their history with each other. Which will be discussed later. Snails slandered me and my server for having minors exposed to nsfw. Yet she is also on a server with mentally unwell minors who are self destructive and are posting porn, gore, their nudes and the scars that they made on their own bodies. That make it fucking rich looking back at the 300 word paragraph she left on our server “exposing us”. Yet to be a hypocrite associated with minors who are ruining themselves. Snails can rot in hell

Peach Uhh also minors can't consent, just thought I'd point that out
Chubo Kway 01/28/2024 10:21 PM
Only issue is I can't verify if they themselves claim to be a minor, and I don't know them personally
I only know a couple of people who were in that server (edited)
Peach 01/28/2024 10:21 PM
As I said I can have the minors contact you
I can give them your discord, but I can't invite them to the server
This is the closest I can prove myself, but again I can send them your way

Now, this is actually just fucked up. It is ABSOLUTELY DISGRACEFUL. They are harboring an ACTIVE PEDOPHILE within their community, and despite clear proof, they still refused. This is a mess. These people are inexcusably terrible. Now, I didn't know about this until I found a post on twitter calling out this problem in the community. And when I saw this post, I instantly reached out to his DM for questions. This is what he tells us

Sorry this took a while to get to!! I've been a bit busy recently.
But essentially what happened was someone within the EternityDev server (which for awareness, is Bridgefall/Karmie) was found speaking sexually with multiple minors, as well as receiving CP from at least one. Knowing the server had minors in it, I reached out to multiple people (including the main dev/server owner) and only got a response from a mod who put me in touch with an admin. The admin saw multiple people, the youngest being 15 while Karmie was 22, and yet still said there "wasn't enough evidence" after talking to the rest of the admins, which I can only assume included the owner.
The issue comes in when I found out after my original post that not only was my story corroborated by someone else who said the predator ADMITTED IT, but apparently they were also at the very least acquaintances with the main dev. I have no idea if they're still in the server now, but I wouldn't be surprised considering they were a tier 3 patron.
Quite honestly, I do believe they're actively harbouring said predator in that server. If the admin I spoke to wasn't pulling the "deliberating this with the admin team" talk out of their ass, it's either money, or the fact that the main dev roleplayed with that predator.

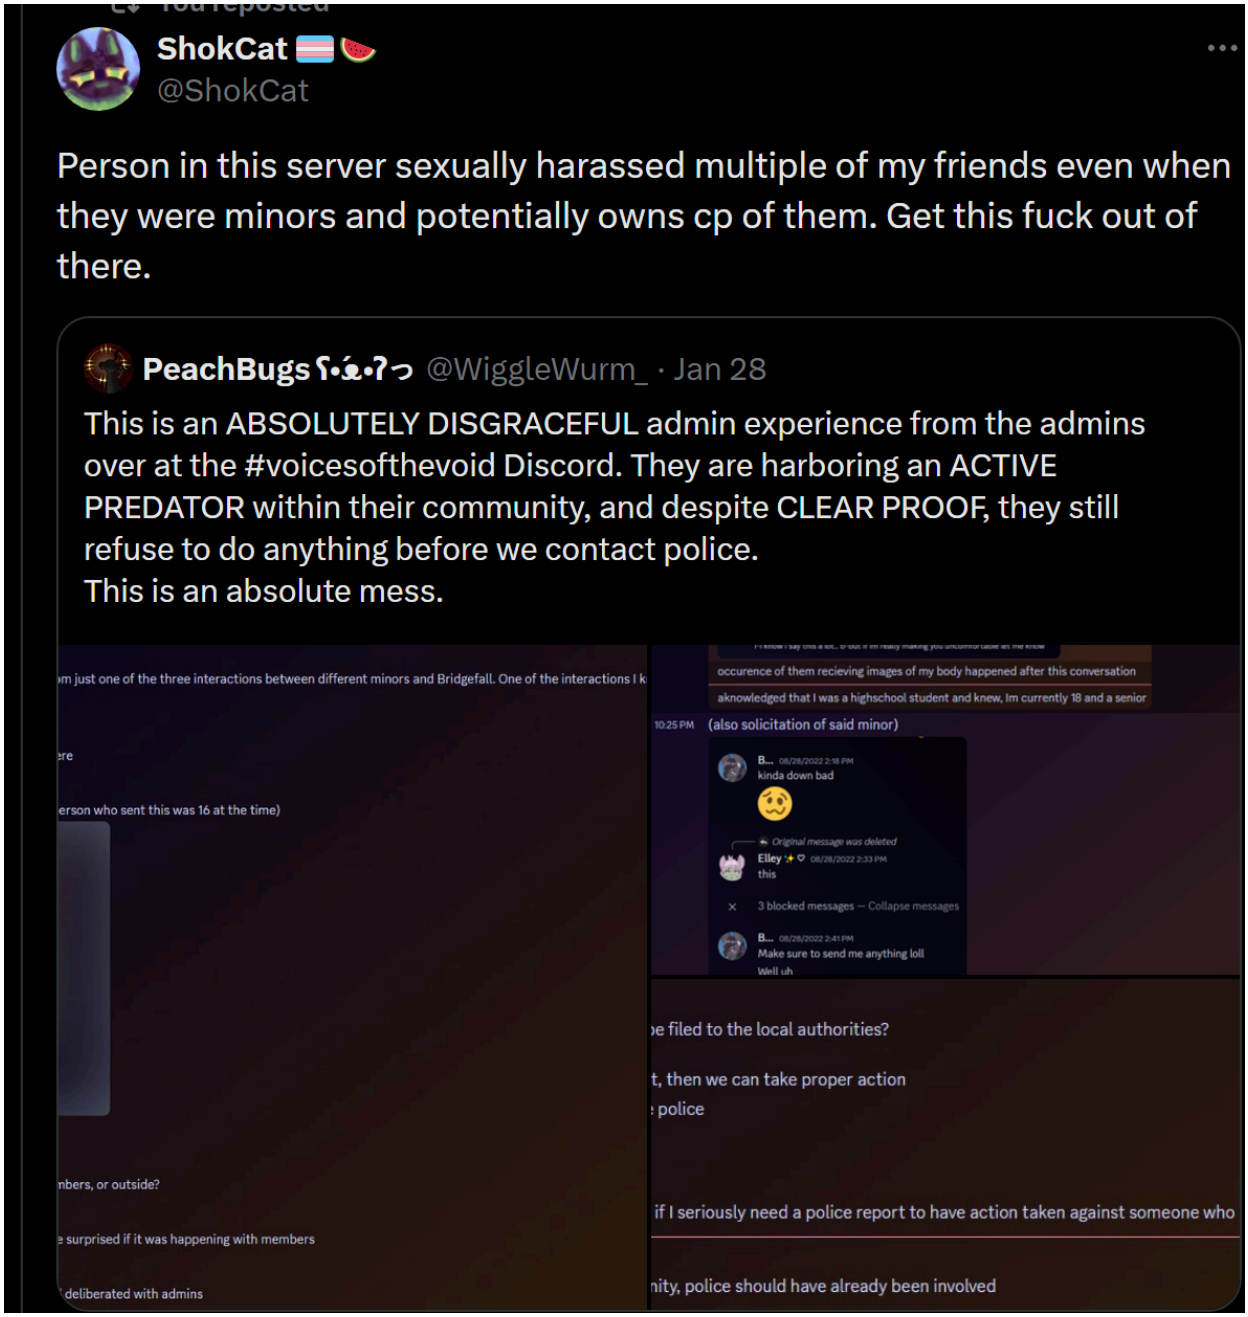
And it seem like this guy has sexually harassed other people too



ShokCat
@ShokCat
Person in this server sexually harassed multiple of my friends even when they were minors and potentially owns cp of them. Get this fuck out of there.

This is an ABSOLUTELY DISGRACEFUL admin experience from the admins over at the #voicesofthevoid Discord. They are harboring an ACTIVE PREDATOR within their community, and despite CLEAR PROOF, they still refuse to do anything before we contact police.

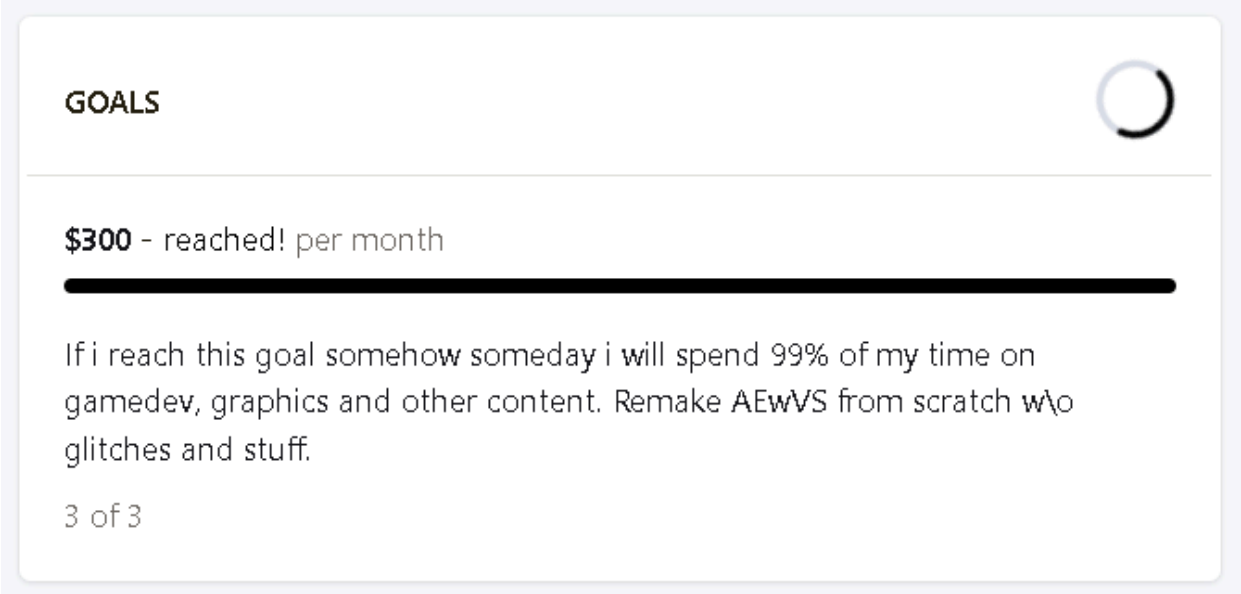
This is beyond wrong, and it can't be excused. Just how bad can these people possibly be? This is just showing that their server is not a safe place to be in AT ALL.

4. MrDrNose backstabbed his old fanbase and basically scammed them out of their patron money

MrDrNose has promised to his fan base that he will remake his unfinished game AEwVS with a remake from scratch if he was ever to make it to 300$ on his patron. Nose and he did made it to $300



GOALS
$300 - reached! per month
If i reach this goal somehow someday i will spend 99% of my time on gamedev, graphics and other content. Remake AEwVS from scratch w\o glitches and stuff.
3 of 3

Now, when he reached the goal. He didn't remake the game, but he did give away the source code for people to use. Okay? Maybe he needed some time to prepare for working on the game and its lore. Except, he went to make other games, such as UDgame which turned out to be a failed project for Nose to get more recognition. Of course, UDgame would've worked if he actually put more ideas and thoughts to it. Anyway, later on he has come up with a very decent and unique game called Voices of the Void. Because of this game, MrDrNose finally gets a larger fanbase. He has big streamers like Vergeskelethor playing his games, his server has gotten to over 2,000 members, and he has more patron supporters. His discord server was 16+ but ever since he got extremely popular from VotV, Nose has made his server available to people 13+ and above. It was great for me and the other AEwVS fans who weren't 16. But after that, MrDrNose abandoned his old fans that had long supported him when he was working on AEwVS and started pushing them out of the community. Reason why is because of VoTV bringing in a new fan base for MrDrNose. And the Patreon Goal was removed. Nose has claimed that he would "work on AEwVS" but yet he just pushes them away, replacing them with the new and "mature" fanbase. Old members of the community have all shared the same thought that MrDrNose has ditched his old fandom.

Kaiden Konsensus (Bro 1) 04/06/2023 8:48 PM
But wait a minute hear me out on this one Nose is currently working on votv and the game gotten him some mass popularity
Before votv he was working on abibaz remaster but than change it to votv and continued working on it because of how popular it is when the game is finished than he will work on the old project he said
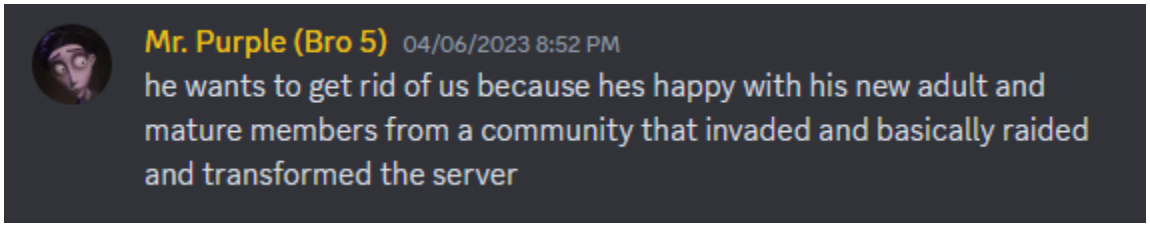
Mr. Purple (Bro 5) 04/06/2023 8:50 PM
then explain why he basically ended up banishing minors in the server who are people like us that paid him a bunch



Mr. Purple (Bro 5) 04/06/2023 8:52 PM
he wants to get rid of us because hes happy with his new adult and mature members from a community that invaded and basically raided and transformed the server

Mr. Purple (Bro 5) 04/07/2023 1:39 AM is it stupid? the original dev is definitely not working on AEwVS anymore due to what his community is currently like and how he wants to keep it, and the other side which is the fanon community is so far just super unoriginal fangames, plenty of drama between the real ED community, and people mentally altered due to the zelezo and brock shit that happened in the past, which has caused my mental strength to rapidly decline overtime. being here for me is just a huge annoying itch and i want to make a community of my own, fresh and hopefully clean of all of this. i will return to aewvs stuff in future when MMC is getting a big head start but for now i want to just cleanse myself and my friend group from all of the destruction we've went through in the past. im currently moving everyone over to another project which is currently going to be my channels biggest and most detailed series yet. i want me and my friend group to hop around different communities, interests and games for mixed variety instead of focusing on the same thing all the time, which is why i want to also make my own stuff for people to become interested in. we've even just got attention from other communities such as the rooms community, and the ED community was one of those that i got attention from. you are a good friend that has done alot of great things for us but its just that i want to get away from all of this stuff until im ready to return and bring a big impact with the upcoming games

He was right about it, and how MrDrNose is such a dick for doing that to his old fans. Eventually some called him out on his bullshit, and MrDrNose would threatened to delete AEwVS off the face of the earth if they don't stop"misbehaving". The fact that his first idea to respond was threatening to delete it shows that he doesn't care at all for his old fans. He doesn't care about any of his longtime supporters, those who supported him long before VoTV was a thing. Instead he abandoned the AEwVS fans, and scammed them out of their money by abandoning a game right after they paid money for it. That is a dick move.

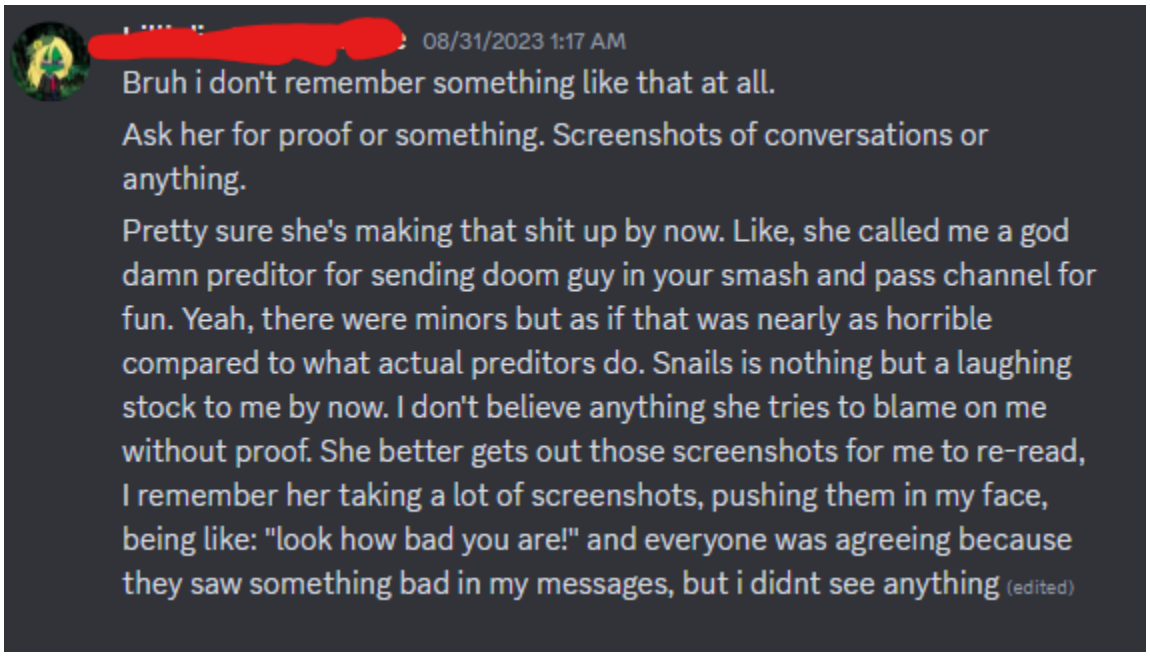
6. Backstabbed Absollover66

[The timeline for the events in this part of the story are not in order]: Absollover66 was a German youtuber that started her channel around 2018. She was pretty much the reason why MrDrNose had a big fanbase with AEwVS, she would make her channel making AEwVS content (or any other games made by Nose), she would make gameplay, guides and gacha animations. Her channel would make over thousands of subscribers. Later, Absollover66 would make a discord server dedicated for AEwVS and any other games. The server, (described by the old members) would be much better before MrDrNose took over, the server didn't have any moderators because Absol doesn't know who to trust to be at such power, and would moderate the server all by herself. Absol at the time was 16 (or 15) when she was the one moderating the entire server. Now, being the only one moderating a very active server must be very stressful for her, later she would finally get some of her friends to be moderators (Snails being the first, she was her friend before she would turned around backstab her and try to antagonize and gaslight her that she was a horrible person) The server was completely fine until someone made their headcanon of Mr Mix being trans because of his "rosy cheeks", Absol would disagree with the logic and would get antagonized from her community and her moderators over her opinion and labeled her as "homophobic", transphobic" and "Fatphobic". Absol was getting very pissed off about it and it led to channels being deleted from Absol out of frustrations. The person who made the headcanon would leave the server, although it's unclear for what their reason was; probably from guilt or something else entirely. Anyway, much later after Absol left the server and gave ownership to MrDrNose. The moderators would still make wild claims to antagonize Absol, even though she left the community and wanted nothing to do about it. Even when she apologized for some of the things she did wrong, they would try to make her sound like a horrible person, by claiming that she refused to ban a self admitted zoophile. I asked Absol about it, Her response was



[redacted] 08/31/2023 1:17 AM
Bruh i don't remember something like that at all.
Ask her for proof or something. Screenshots of conversations or anything.
Pretty sure she's making that shit up by now. Like, she called me a god damn preditor for sending doom guy in your smash and pass channel for fun. Yeah, there were minors but as if that was nearly as horrible compared to what actual preditors do. Snails is nothing but a laughing stock to me by now. I don't believe anything she tries to blame on me without proof. She better gets out those screenshots for me to re-read, I remember her taking a lot of screenshots, pushing them in my face, being like: "look how bad you are!" and everyone was agreeing because they saw something bad in my messages, but i didnt see anything (edited)

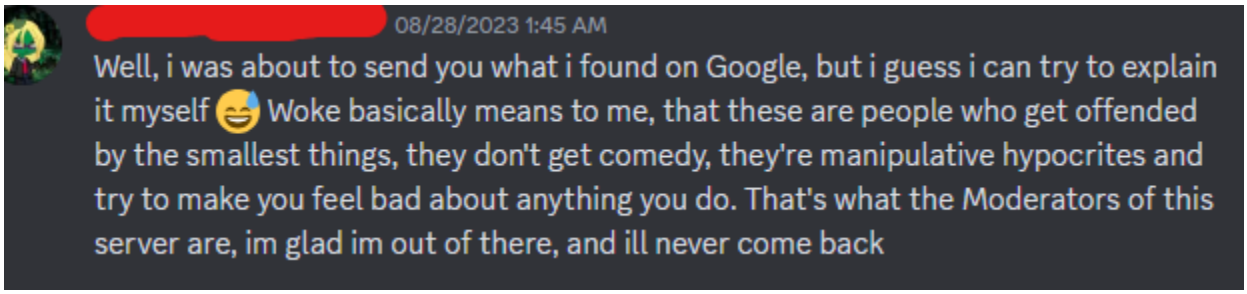
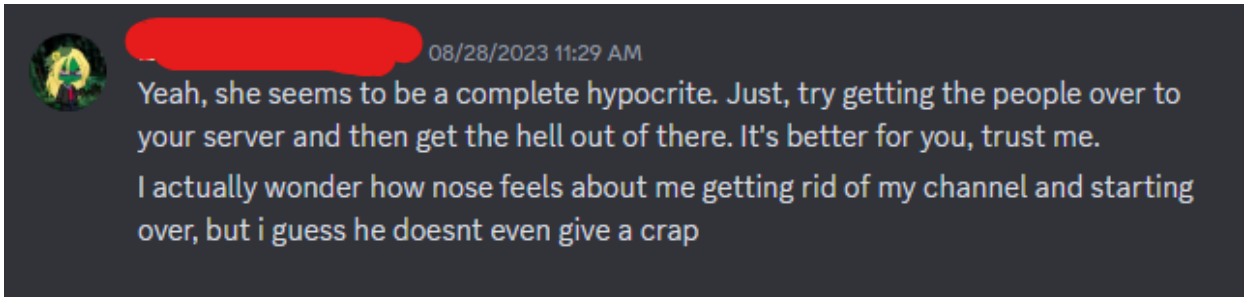
[redacted] 08/28/2023 1:38 AM
Probably idk. But i don't care. I know that snails is basically woke material. She gets offended so easily over so little things. And nose is on her side, because i guess he's glad his games are finally getting attention, and something as woke as snails and the other mods on this server could easily cancel him. If i knew about this earlier and wasnt so offended and hurt myself, things wouldve been way different.



[redacted] 08/28/2023 1:45 AM
Well, i was about to send you what i found on Google, but i guess i can try to explain it myself Woke basically means to me, that these are people who get offended by the smallest things, they don't get comedy, they're manipulative hypocrites and try to make you feel bad about anything you do. That's what the Moderators of this server are, im glad im out of there, and ill never come back

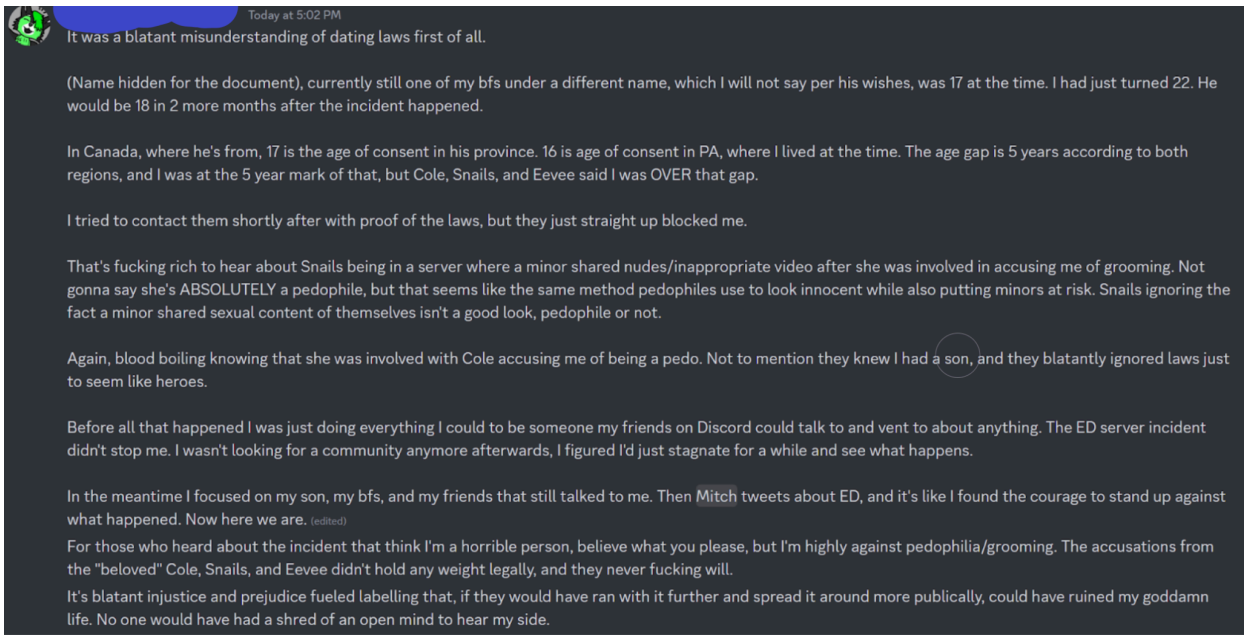


[redacted] 08/28/2023 11:29 AM
Yeah, she seems to be a complete hypocrite. Just, try getting the people over to your server and then get the hell out of there. It's better for you, trust me.
I actually wonder how nose feels about me getting rid of my channel and starting over, but i guess he doesnt even give a crap

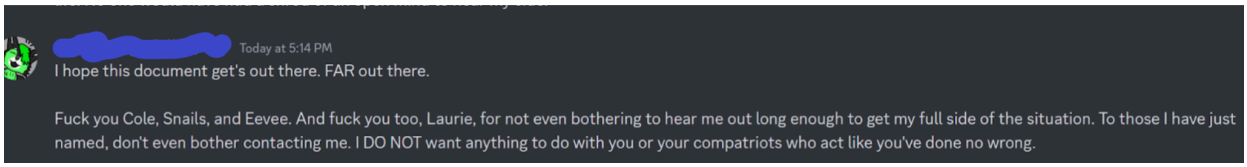
It's sad that Absol is always villainized by the moderators, except for the OG members who actually describe her far better than what the mods describe her.

7. The horrible false pedo allegation they made on a member

This guy was an old member from the Eternitydev Server. He has been around long before VoTV. He joined the server at the age of 21, and would be banned at the age of 22. Right now he is 23. The reason why he's on the document is because he is another victim, and he had it worse than me or Sasik. They came to us when he saw Mitch's twitter post denouncing the Eternitydev server, and it would give them courage to make his stand. He contacted us and shared his story. A moderator in the server known as Cole has thrown in harmful allegations about them. And ignored all reason. They also had a son, and they knew it but never cared.



[redacted] Today at 5:02 PM
It was a blatant misunderstanding of dating laws first of all.
(Name hidden for the document), currently still one of my bfs under a different name, which I will not say per his wishes, was 17 at the time. I had just turned 22. He would be 18 in 2 more months after the incident happened.
In Canada, where he's from, 17 is the age of consent in his province. 16 is age of consent in PA, where I lived at the time. The age gap is 5 years according to both regions, and I was at the 5 year mark of that, but Cole, Snails, and Eevee said I was OVER that gap.
I tried to contact them shortly after with proof of the laws, but they just straight up blocked me.
That's fucking rich to hear about Snails being in a server where a minor shared nudes/inappropriate video after she was involved in accusing me of grooming. Not gonna say she's ABSOLUTELY a pedophile, but that seems like the same method pedophiles use to look innocent while also putting minors at risk. Snails ignoring the fact a minor shared sexual content of themselves isn't a good look, pedophile or not.
Again, blood boiling knowing that she was involved with Cole accusing me of being a pedo. Not to mention they knew I had a son, and they blatantly ignored laws just to seem like heroes.
Before all that happened I was just doing everything I could to be someone my friends on Discord could talk to and vent to about anything. The ED server incident didn't stop me. I wasn't looking for a community anymore afterwards, I figured I'd just stagnate for a while and see what happens.
In the meantime I focused on my son, my bfs, and my friends that still talked to me. Then Mitch tweets about ED, and it's like I found the courage to stand up against what happened. Now here we are. (edited)
For those who heard about the incident that think I'm a horrible person, believe what you please, but I'm highly against pedophilia/grooming. The accusations from the "beloved" Cole, Snails, and Eevee didn't hold any weight legally, and they never fucking will.
It's blatant injustice and prejudice fueled labelling that, if they would have ran with it further and spread it around more publically, could have ruined my goddamn life. No one would have had a shred of an open mind to hear my side.



[redacted] Today at 5:14 PM
I hope this document get's out there. FAR out there.
Fuck you Cole, Snails, and Eevee. And fuck you too, Laurie, for not even bothering to hear me out long enough to get my full side of the situation. To those I have just named, don't even bother contacting me. I DO NOT want anything to do with you or your compatriots who act like you've done no wrong.

They even backed up our claim about the favoritism and MrDrNose blatantly sexualizing his characters around minors on his discord server.

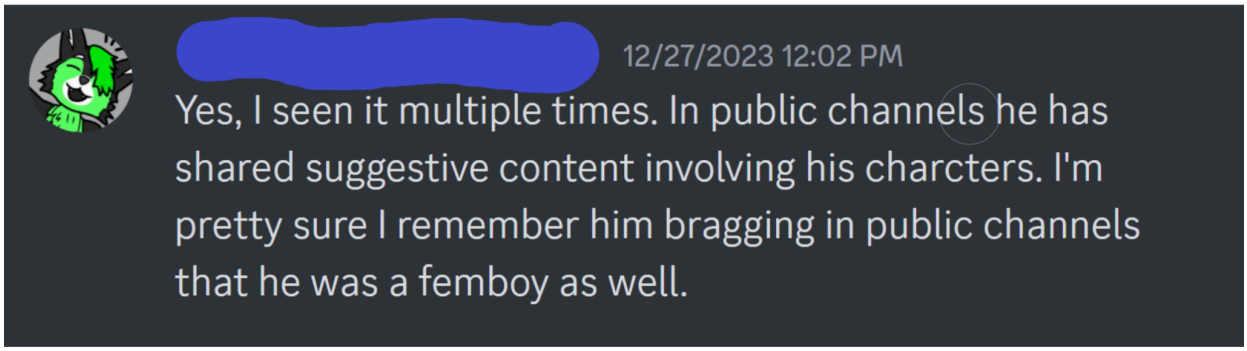
A lot of favoritism was presented mainly in the NSFW channels, which I was active in. Aside from said channels, I saw Nose sharing very suggestive content of his characters in non-NSFW channels.
Dec 26, 2023, 5:07 AM



[redacted] 12/27/2023 12:02 PM
Yes, I seen it multiple times. In public channels he has shared suggestive content involving his charcters. I'm pretty sure I remember him bragging in public channels that he was a femboy as well.

But there was at least a happy ending for them as Cole (Aka Alex on Eternitydev Discord) has apologized to them

[redacted] 02/27/2024 9:28 PM
I'll still publicize the fact I was alleged to be a pedophile by Snails and Eevee. I'm not including Cole anymore at the very least because they already apologized to me and my bf for what happened.

Okay. I will make sure to add your story into the doc also, your not concern about drama are you? Are you the type to stand up for yourself?
[redacted] Yesterday at 9:48 PM or you could literally just keep me anonymous?

And here is another person who contacted me on twitter to tell me about how bad Eternitydev was, they also wanted to be anonymous. Their dm was very long so skip this if you want if you don't feel like reading anymore.

Well, I wasn't really a victim like Coby and Mitch, but I was a member of the server back then.

I joined the server back in 2021, because I was really interested in AEwVS, and that's where I began getting attached to it.

I was a very introverted person and I haven't really talked much to people online. That's also where I met Coby and some other people I grew really attached to.

This isn't really about Nose and the mods. But I was being talked behind my back after I left the server in 2022 July.

I was basically forcing myself to be the most active, and I was trying to be too kind too everyone which in result made me lose myself, and I became extremely sensitive to everything. I blocked my friends for basically no reason, and was too hard on myself.

After I left to clear myself I realized how dumb it was of me to let discord manipulate my mind. And even worse is how people talked about me, I was no different than a lot of other people who left because they were in a similar boat as me. I also never had any intentions on hurting anyone, I still regret what I've done. But I moved on from the whole Discord thing.

Afterwards I noticed how the server got bigger and I was curious how was it.

I read the document you guys made and I have no words. I really thought I was the worst person there (even though I was just an emotionally unstable person). I saw how Nose and the mods tried making some other people look bad, I wouldn't be surprised if I was one of them.

That's probably how Absol was antagonized, and Coby as well.

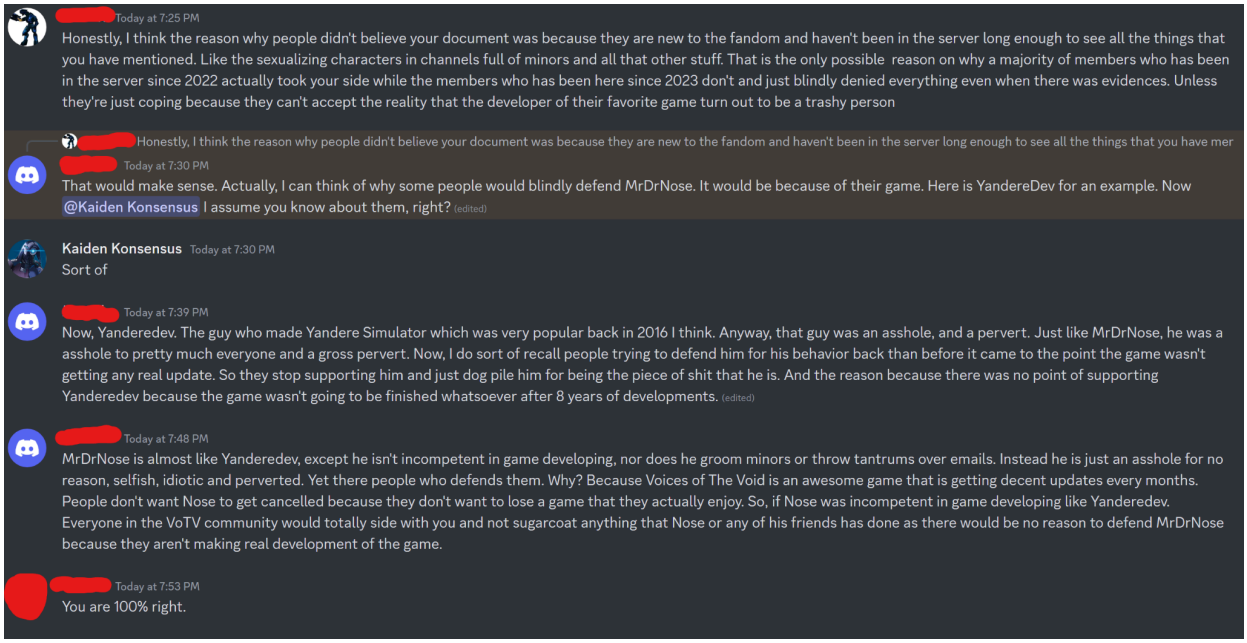
Sorry if this isn't what you expected, this is just what happened to me. But I no longer want to support Nose or anyone there, I was a Patron back then, I wish I wasn't.

Jan 9, 2024, 3:45 AM

I don't really wanna get involved with any kind of EternityDev bullshit, I would have to delete my YouTube channel, and I'm really dedicated to it, and I hate how it's still getting recognized for Nose games.

The Aftermath

Since this document went public. It had a few ups and downs, with some people. Some just blindly defend MrDrNoses and try to make up any excuses about anything bad that happens. But there were a good majority of people who agreed because they know what I'm talking about. Like these two who actually give a logical explanation on why some people would blindly defend MrDrNose when he is in the wrong.



[redacted] Today at 7:25 PM
Honestly, I think the reason why people didn't believe your document was because they are new to the fandom and haven't been in the server long enough to see all the things that you have mentioned. Like the sexualizing characters in channels full of minors and all that other stuff. That is the only possible reason on why a majority of members who has been in the server since 2022 actually took your side while the members who has been here since 2023 don't and just blindly denied everything even when there was evidences. Unless they're just coping because they can't accept the reality that the developer of their favorite game turn out to be a trashy person
[redacted] Honestly, I think the reason why people didn't believe your document was because they are new to the fandom and haven't been in the server long enough to see all the things that you have mer
[redacted] Today at 7:30 PM
That would make sense. Actually, I can think of why some people would blindly defend MrDrNose. It would be because of their game. Here is YandereDev for an example. Now @Kaiden Konsensus I assume you know about them, right? (edited)
Kaiden Konsensus Today at 7:30 PM
Sort of
[redacted] Today at 7:39 PM
Now, Yanderedev. The guy who made Yandere Simulator which was very popular back in 2016 I think. Anyway, that guy was an asshole, and a pervert. Just like MrDrNose, he was a asshole to pretty much everyone and a gross pervert. Now, I do sort of recall people trying to defend him for his behavior back than before it came to the point the game wasn't getting any real update. So they stop supporting him and just dog pile him for being the piece of shit that he is. And the reason because there was no point of supporting Yanderedev because the game wasn't going to be finished whatsoever after 8 years of developments. (edited)
[redacted] Today at 7:48 PM
MrDrNose is almost like Yanderedev, except he isn't incompetent in game developing, nor does he groom minors or throw tantrums over emails. Instead he is just an asshole for no reason, selfish, idiotic and perverted. Yet there people who defends them. Why? Because Voices of The Void is an awesome game that is getting decent updates every months. People don't want Nose to get cancelled because they don't want to lose a game that they actually enjoy. So, if Nose was incompetent in game developing like Yanderedev. Everyone in the VoTV community would totally side with you and not sugarcoat anything that Nose or any of his friends has done as there would be no reason to defend MrDrNose because they aren't making real development of the game.
[redacted] Today at 7:53 PM
You are 100% right.

Anyway, when my document went public. It actually caused drama in Voices of The Void Itch.Io comment section.

I wish I started to understand the community of the game and the people who made it. A developer who doesn't accept criticism is the basis for indie, and you can still live with it, but when they write about aral sex, it's no longer funny. I wonder if I can play normally now, knowing that the creator had these other sex and other things in his head. In general, the game is cool, even more so for an alpha. I won't be offended if the comment is deleted, it doesn't really matter to me.

Also I think nose just has his status set to offline @Kaiden Konsensus I just saw him say smth in the patreon room

Isn’t it odd that Nose coincidentally set his status to offline right after that whole drama on Itch. Now it could've been a coincidence so I decided to continue waiting for MrDrNose to dm me on either discord or twitter. But he never did.

Well you dont even know the entire picture, judging the entire thing looking at few itch comments only lol. I already addressed these issues and explained them in the past.
If you want to know a bigger picture - join discord and people who actually knows whats going on will explain the situation, this page is a videogame page, not a cesspool for dramas. People come here for a game, not for this kind of stuff.
And if youre interested in "negotiations" stuff we had - we tried to solve this issue with peace and understanding 1-2 days ago, but he refused to cooperate and instead tossed back a list requirements i and staff members cannot accept. This situation is hopeless, this guy is obsessed with ED stuff and have to move on instead of destroying himself.

If the screenshots of both twitter and discord dm weren't obvious enough. MrDrNose didn't try to talk to me 2 days ago because he never did try to make contact. Which shows me that the only reason he said he was going to "Negotiate" with me was to make everyone leave him alone by lying that he was going to do so. Either way people didn't believe him since he didn't show proof that he actually did, and after that, the drama got pretty bad. As some people lost hope in him completely and decided to stop donating to their patreon. (These comments were made after Nose changed the format to have an easier time deleting comments calling him out. These posts no longer exist and these screenshots are the thing we have of them)

The drama is too much for me and Nose is a bad person just because one person used the same patreon for multiple projects and one got them almost all of their income does not magically mean they can instantly finish all their projects and promises and should not prioritize the ones that are immediately giving them a paycheck and attention. That's not scamming that's basic business and limitations of a fuckin single person

Opinion on the problems of the developer ED Games
A topic by [MGE] Misha created 37 seconds ago Views: 1
Viewing posts 1 to 1
[MGE] Misha 37 seconds ago
The game has become popular in the CIS countries only because of YouTube and many will be disappointed when they find out the dark side of this game. Yes, the game is well done, Maxim is well done and those who helped him create the game, but when I saw the community of this game, I was scared like other new users, I have not seen so much eroticism anywhere, there are about 20 channels with an erotic character. Maybe this is normal for the Western community, but for people from Eastern Europe it is terrible. Maxim decided to split the community on the server and banned many people who knew the truth about all the dirty deeds of Maxim and his team.
Conclusion: VotV will not live long if Maxim does not fix problems with his community and I saw a new document on the developer of ED Games, Maxim will have to justify himself or he will be covered with eternal shame.

Conclusion:

I've been in the Eternitydev Fanbase far longer before VoTV was made and when I joined, I wanted to support MrDrNose, his games and the lore was what brought me here. But after VoTV, the charm of the whole Eternritydev universe faded quickly. And it's not because it's a bad game, but it's the people that it has attracted, and those people are the mods that are self-righteous and entitled. I honestly don't know what caused Nose to be a selfish and dishonest asshole. But it is clear he is a selfish and narcissistic devient who choose to not fix himself and choose to insult anyone who point out any of his flaws, he is unwilling to admit mistakes, he is indecent, uncompromising, uncompassionate, dishonest, selfish, arrogant, and most of all a trash and pathetic excuse for a human being, who choose to not be rational. When he has a chance to communicate with the people he wronged and do something to make things right with them, except he doesn't and chooses to ignore them and mock them about it. Showing how much he doesn't care about the people or the community in general. And any criticism is not welcome. It's no wonder why many old members begin to hate him. He is just an asshole. He backstabbed them and bullied them and replaced them. But if this doc manages to bring more attention to this, Nose either admits his wrongdoing, apologizes and fixes the damage he caused. Now, about Snails, she is just a delusional two faced manipulative hypocrite who cannot take accountability for what she has done to Absol, Coby and me. So, if you follow her on twitter on any social media, unfollow her. She doesn't even deserve 800 followers when she is just a garbage person. And if you're friends with her, but didnt know she was a garbage human being, Block her.

She can't get away from the things she has done. And that includes all the other mods that are just very trashy people who do not care for any other people, they've tried so hard to bully and slander people without a care about that person, and that is not okay. They need to be held accountable, this community has affected me and a bunch of others mental health. So, this is all we had in store for this document. And if you can help us. please do share this document around if you could
